Production Report

PRODUCTION ACTIVITY

Another form of March Madness begins this week with two television series and a pilot going into principal, a feature halfway through production and another series about to finish prep. Like last year, spring seems to be a busy time for New Mexico production and we anticipate production activity to continue through the summer. For press releases and production emails, visit the "In Production" link at nmfilm.com.

VENDORS

As production activity increases, a reminder to vendors to vet your projects, consider deposits where applicable, amend your contracts as things change, or get that PO number. Do not wait until a production closes its local offices to sort out payments. If you do have an outstanding claim, email Sherry in our office with the amount owed, service dates and description. For information about qualifying vendors, please visit nmfilm.com.

AFCI LOCATIONS SHOW

This year the AFCI Locations Tradeshow will be held in Century City, California, at the Hyatt Regency from March 27-29. The New Mexico State Film Office, along with the Albuquerque Film Office, Otero Film Office and Santa Fe Film Office will be participating. Please visit us at booth #400.

State Film Liaison Network

A BIG THANK YOU TO STATE FILM LIAISON PETER PINO

The Film Office would like express sincere gratitude to Peter Pino of Zia Pueblo for his dedication and commitment to the New Mexico Film Industry. Mr. Pino has recently retired after over a decade of assisting productions with scouting and filming at Zia Pueblo.
