

The New Mexico Film Office Announces Feature Film Jackie, Shooting in New Mexico

Jackie will employ at least 70 New Mexico crew members and more than 150 principal and background talent

Contact: Angela Heisel
(505)827-0309

November 16, 2011, SANTA FE - New Mexico Film Office director Nick Maniatis announced today that Jackie, produced by Hans de Weers, Reinout Oerlemans and Erwin Godschalk of Dutch company Eyeworks Film and Television Drama B.V., is filming in and around western New Mexico. Production begins mid-November through December.

Directed by Antoinette Beumer (Loft and the Happy Housewife) an established director of mainstream features in Europe, the road-trip adventure stars Oscar-winner Holly Hunter (The Piano) and sisters Carice van Houten (Valkyrie) and Jelka van Houten (The Domino Effect).

New Mexico line producer Brent Morris's Indieproduction, LLC is providing local production services and the feature will employ at least 70 New Mexico crew members and more than 150 principal and background talent.

Jackie tells the story of Dutch twin sisters who travel to America looking for their long lost mother, played by Holly Hunter.

Visit the New Mexico Film Office online at nmfilm.com.