

New Mexico Film Office Announces Statewide Film Industry Town Hall in Raton

Contact: NM Film Office
(505)476-5604

February 15, 2012, SANTA FE—The New Mexico Film Office today announced a Town Hall meeting is scheduled to take place in Raton on Wednesday, February 29, 2012. This Town Hall follows the first series of town hall meetings that took place in Las Cruces, Ruidoso and Roswell in the fall of 2011. Director Nick Maniatis will discuss the state of the New Mexico film industry – including an update about legislation, the outlook going forward, and the opportunities available to New Mexicans. The meetings are also intended to provide an open forum for each community to share information about their educational programs, film related businesses, and issues of concern. The Town Halls are free and open to all, including students, local filmmakers, businesses and the general public. Please RSVP to Rochelle Bussey at 505-476-5604 or rochelle@nmfilm.com.

RATON: Wednesday,
February 29, 2012 – 5:30
Shuler Theatre
131 N. 2nd Street, Raton, NM 87740
Contact: Sara Kowalski at (575) 445-9806

Agenda: 5:30pm - Welcome and Introductions, Sara Kowalski, Raton Film Liaison
5:45pm - State of the NM Film Industry, Director Nick Maniatis
6:00pm - Q and A session

Following the town hall at 7:30pm there will be a free screening of the film BUTCH CASSIDY AND THE SUNDANCE KID (1969) at the El Raton Theater, 113 N. 2nd Street, Raton, NM 87740 (next door to the Shuler Theater).

For more information contact Sara Kowalski at (575) 445-9806