

Chronos Film Festival

Contact: Christa
(505)510-1006
christaQoneheadlightink.com

September 30, 2011, Santa Fe, NM -In association with The Albuquerque Film Office, Chronos presents its first annual Film Festival, a pioneering forum for innovation, technology, digital media and education to encourage youth involvement through film scholarship. The first ever of festival its kind, Chronos is partnered with YDI Digital Arts Outreach as the event's title beneficiary, with donations also benefiting Big Brothers, Big Sisters of New Mexico.

Chronos will launch on Thursday, Nov 3, 2011 with a screening of Godfrey Reggio's groundbreaking visual arts film, "Koyaanisqatsii" at 5:00pm at the historic Kimo Theatre in Downtown Albuquerque with a simultaneous showing at the Inn & Spa at Loretto in Santa Fe, New Mexico where the festival events will take place through November 5, 2011.

Film submissions in Time-Lapse, Stop Motion, Slow Motion, & Youth (16 & under) categories are being accepted for early registration through October 15, 2011. Entrants films will be screened and promoted on the Chronos Film Festival channel on Vimeo.com.

Sponsors Zacuto and Kessler Crane have provided generous prizes for winners per film category.

Visit the event website, <http://www.chronosfilmfestival.com/> for full festival details including submission guidelines, attendance packages, partners/sponsors, and the iconic film and photography guest list including Keynote Speaker Philip Bloom and Master of Ceremonies John Kapelos.

©Sindication
<http://www.oneheadlightink.com/sindication/>