The New Mexico Film Office Announces “Comancheria” to film in New Mexico

SANTA FE — New Mexico Film Office Director Nick Maniatis announced today that the thriller feature “Comancheria” will be produced in the state mid May through the beginning of July in Albuquerque and Clovis. Directed by David Mackenzie and produced by Sidney Kimmel, Pete Berg and Julie Yorn.

The production will employ at least 135 New Mexico crew members and approximately 850 local background talent.

“We are pleased to have ‘Comancheria’ in New Mexico and welcome back Jeff Bridges and Ben Foster to our state” stated Director Nick Maniatis.

Starring Jeff Bridges (“True Grit,” “The Big Lebowski”), Chris Pine (“Star Trek Into Darkness,” “Rise of the Guardians”) and Ben Foster (“Lone Survivor,” “3:10 to Yuma”), “Comancheria,” is the story of two brothers on a calculated bank robbery spree that puts them on a collision course with a West Texas Ranger, determined to bring them down.
