The New Mexico Film Office Announces “Dreamland” to film in New Mexico

Santa Fe, N.M. - New Mexico Film Office Director Nick Maniatis announced today that the feature "Dreamland" produced by Romulus Entertainment, Automatik Entertainment and LuckyChap Entertainment, will begin principal photography in New Mexico. Production will begin mid-October through mid-November.

"We're proud to see another production choose New Mexico," said Film Office Director Nick Maniatis. "New Mexico's deep talent pool, one-of-a-kind landscapes, and powerful incentives make our state the perfect place to bring a production."

The production will employ approximately 100 New Mexico crew members, approximately 18 New Mexico principal actors and approximately 225 New Mexico background talent.

Starring Margot Robbie ("The Wolf of Wall Street," "Suicide Squad"), "Dreamland," is directed by Miles Joris-Peyrafitte ("As You Are") and produced by Brian Kavanaugh-Jones ("Loving," "Insidious"), Rian Cahill ("Sweet Virginia"), Margot Robbie ("I, Tonya"), Tom Ackerley ("I, Tonya"), Josey McNamara ("Terminal") and Brad Feinstein ("Fences").

With his family's farm on the precipice of foreclosure amid the devastation of the Dust Bowl, "Dreamland" follows Eugene Evans on his quest to capture a fugitive bank robber and collect the bounty on her head. Against all odds, he beats out the FBI and the local police to find her, only to discover that she's far more than what the authorities claim her to be.
