The New Mexico Film Office Announces “From Dusk Till Dawn: The Series” to film its Third Season in New Mexico

SANTA FE — New Mexico Film Office Director Nick Maniatis announced today that season three of the television series “From Dusk Till Dawn: The Series” produced by Miramax® in association with Rodriguez International Pictures, FactoryMade Ventures and Sugarcane Entertainment will begin principal photography mid March through the end of June in Albuquerque.

The production will employ approximately 250 New Mexico crew members and approximately 75 New Mexico background talent per episode.

Executive Producers include Robert Rodriguez, Carlos Coto (Showrunner), Diego Gutierrez, John Fogelman, Cristina Patwa, Zanne Devine and Daniel Pipski. The third season of “From Dusk Till Dawn: The Series” continues the reimagining of Robert Rodriguez’s 1996 iconic movie “From Dusk Till Dawn,” which Miramax® (www.miramax.com) also released theatrically at that time, as the TV show expands on the fascinating supernatural crime saga centered around brothers Seth and Richie Gecko. “From Dusk Till Dawn The Series” will air on El Rey Network (www.elreynetwork.com).
