

The New Mexico State Film Office announces the 2015 “New Mexico Filmmakers Showcase” screening.

Two free days of films by New Mexico residents. January 24th – 25th, 2015

SANTA FE— The New Mexico Film Office announced the schedule for the 2015 NM Filmmakers Showcase featuring 43 independently produced statewide works including Albuquerque, Sandia Park, Santa Fe, Portales, Farmington, Capitan, Clovis, Las Cruces and Roswell. The Showcase will take place at The Jean Cocteau Cinema (418 Montezuma Avenue, Santa Fe, NM 87501) and is free and open to the public to attend. For a complete schedule visit www.nmfilm.com.

Saturday, January 24, 2015

- 4:00 pm: Welcome and Announcement of Winners
Best of Category screening (TRT 132 min.)
- 6:30 pm: Networking event hosted by the Jean Cocteau Cinema

Sunday, January 25, 2015

- 10:00 am Block A: Animation Category (TRT 15 min.)
- 10:15 am Block B: Comedy Category (TRT 62 min.)
- 11:20 am Block C: Documentary Category (TRT 98 min.)
- 12:50 pm Block D: Drama Category (TRT 91 min.)
- 2:20 pm Block E: Experimental Category (TRT 98 min.)
- 3:30 pm Block F: Horror, Other and Sci-Fi Categories (TRT 68 min.)

Following the showcase, winning films will travel New Mexico throughout the year in collaboration with local film festivals and theaters. For more information contact the New Mexico Film Office at 505-476-5604 or rochelle@nmfilm.com.