New Mexico Film Office Announces Short Narrative “Printed” Begins Production

Santa Fe, NM - Amber Dodson, the New Mexico State Film Office Director, announced today that the short narrative, “Printed,” is filming in November, in and around Albuquerque.

“Printed” is directed by John K.D. Graham, (“Switched”), produced by Lava Khosuwon (“All That Remains”), and Meow Wolf.

According to Khosuwon, “Printed’ tells the story of two young women, each navigating hard moments in life, who discover their intertwining paths may save them from the chaos surrounding them.”

The production is employing approximately 10 New Mexico crew members and 7 New Mexico principal actors.
