New Mexico Film Office Announces Commercials for US Eagle Wrap Filming

Santa Fe, NM - New Mexico Film Office Director Amber Dodson announced today that a set of commercials highlighting US Eagle's community involvement wrapped in Albuquerque in January.

Lensed by Bradley Morford and produced by Reinhard Lorenz ("The Warm Season"), these commercials will spotlight US Eagle's community outreach program and various community efforts. The production is a short series including three commercials highlighting the support of New Mexico Gas Company customers during the winter and New Mexico Veterans through multiple Veteran organizations.

"I am excited to return to New Mexico for another project with US Eagle," Morford said. "It is always a pleasure to work with the New Mexico crew base."

The production will employ approximately 9 New Mexico crew members.
