New Mexico Film Office Announces “A Really Haunted Loud House” Has Completed Production in New Mexico

Santa Fe, NM - Amber Dodson, the New Mexico Film Office Director, announced today that Nickelodeon wrapped production on a brand-new feature film, “A Really Haunted Loud House,” in Albuquerque, NM.

The film will follow Lincoln Loud, Wolfgang Schaeffer, (“The Really Loud House,” “Pivoting”), and his best friend Clyde, Jahzir Bruno, (“The Really Loud House,” “The Witches”) as they decide between trick or treating and the signature Loud family Spooktacular or attending a party hosted by Xander, the cool new kid at school.

Playing the real-life versions of the beloved Loud family in the movie, the cast includes Brian Stepanek as Lynn Loud Sr., Jolie Jenkins as Rita Loud, Eva Carlton as Leni Loud, Sophia Woodward as Luna Loud, Catherine Ashmore Bradley as Luan Loud, Annaka Fournieret as Lynn Loud, Aubin Bradley as Lucy Loud, Ella Allan as Lola Loud, Mia Allan as Lana Loud, Lexi Janicek as Lisa Loud, Lexi DiBenedetto as Lori Loud, and August Michael Peterson as Lily Loud.

“A Really Haunted Loud House” is directed by Jonathan Judge (“The Really Loud House,” “Life in Pieces,” “All That”) and written by Tony Gama-Lobo and Rebecca May (“The Casagrandes Movie,” “Rise of the TMNT”), with revisions by Tim Hobert (“The Middle,” “Scrubs,” “Community”). Judge and Michael Rubiner (“The Loud House”) serve as executive producers. Don Dunn (“iCarly,” “To All the Boys: Always and Forever”) and Melanie Kirk (“The Really Loud House,” “Trinkets,” “The Terminal List”) serve as producers. Production for Nickelodeon Studios is overseen by Shauna Phelan and Zack Olin, Co-Heads of Nickelodeon & Awesomeness Live-Action Series and Films. Brittany Cope serves as Nickelodeon’s Executive in Charge of Production for the franchise.

The Studios at the Journal Center, one of eight newly added locations on the list of Qualified Production Facilities from the New Mexico Film Office, was allocated for productions after The Albuquerque Journal began outsourcing the printing of their paper to fellow, family-owned, local newspaper, The Santa Fe New Mexican.

The production has employed approximately 300 New Mexico crew members, 650 New Mexico background talent, and 10 New Mexico principal actors.
