New Mexico Film Office Announces Short Film “How Charming” Completes Production

Santa Fe, NM - Amber Dodson, the New Mexico State Film Office Director, announced today that the short film, “How Charming,” completed filming in September in and around Albuquerque.

Directed by Bryce Dylan and produced by Eric Braun, “How Charming” follows a young man as he gets distracted while studying. He calls his best friend as a young cyclist passes him by and contemplates the feeling left from the encounter.

The production employed approximately 12 New Mexico crew members and 3 New Mexico principal actors.
