The New Mexico Film Office Announces 213 has Completed Production in New Mexico

SANTA FE, N.M. – The New Mexico Film Office today announced the feature film 213, produced by Al Bravo Films LLC, has completed production in New Mexico. Filming took place in August 2021 in Albuquerque, New Mexico.

“New Mexico is the place for filmmakers of all experience levels and we are glad to see new production crews forming from prior projects shot in the state such as the team behind 213,” said Amber Dodson, Director, New Mexico Film Office.

213 is directed by Lance Kavas (Demon Pit, Silent War) and produced by Al Bravo (Blow Back, & The Commando) and Asif Akbar (The Commando). 213 follows Greg as he becomes trapped in his apartment by a swarm of evil creatures that are outside his door. He must find a way to survive the night and escape from room number 213.

The production employed approximately 20 New Mexico crew members, 10 New Mexico principal cast members, and 10 New Mexico background and extras. Principal cast includes Donald “Cowboy” Cerrone (Spenser Confidential) and Brande Roderick (Starsky & Hutch, The Apprentice).

“New Mexico was our first choice for production with this film because of the versatile landscape and resources available here locally that fit this particular story and the vision of the film that the producers and director shared,” said Asif Akbar, producer.
