

Statement of No Outstanding Financial Obligations

Date: _____

The production _____ affirms that as of the above date, it does not have any outstanding production related financial obligations in New Mexico. All cast, crew and vendors have been paid in full.

The Production understands that if payments have not been made despite the affirmations in this letter that the New Mexico Film Office (NMFO) will immediately initiate action to stop the processing of any incentive due to the production until such payments have been received by the person/company owed. The Production understands that an agreement to defer payment is not considered payment in full and should not be relied upon when signing this letter. The production further understands that NMFO urges the production to take all reasonable care to ascertain that no vendors, cast or crew are owed prior to signing this letter.
