The New Mexico Film Office Announces Dr. Death a UCP Production Has Begun Filming in New Mexico

SANTA FE, N.M. – The New Mexico Film Office today announced a new television series Dr. Death has begun production in New Mexico. The series is produced by Northern Entertainment Productions LLC / UCP, a division of Universal Studio Group, and is filming in Moriarty and Albuquerque, New Mexico this March.

“We are thrilled to welcome the television series Dr. Death to New Mexico. This UCP production will be the first to utilize NBCU’s new studio in Albuquerque,” said Amber Dodson, New Mexico Film Office Director.

Dr. Death is directed by Maggie Kiley (Dirty John: The Betty Broderick Story, “Riverdale”), So Yong Kim (Lovesong, Grand Army) and Jennifer Morrison (One Of Us Is Lying, Euphoria) and executive produced by Patrick Macmanus (The Girl From Plainville).

The production will employ approximately 100 New Mexico crew members, 5 supporting New Mexico cast members, and 100 New Mexico background and extras.

The production will star actors Joshua Jackson, Alec Baldwin and Christian Slater.

Dr. Death is based on Wondery’s hit podcast, the terrifying true story of Dr. Christopher Duntsch (Joshua Jackson), a rising star in the Dallas medical community. Young, charismatic and ostensibly brilliant, Dr. Duntsch was building a flourishing neurosurgery practice when everything suddenly changed. Patients entered his operating room for complex but routine spinal surgeries and left permanently maimed or dead. As victims piled up, two fellow physicians, neurosurgeon Robert Henderson (Alec Baldwin) and vascular surgeon Randall Kirby (Christian Slater), set out to stop him. Dr. Death explores the twisted mind of Dr. Duntsch and the failures of the system designed to protect the most defenseless among us.
